NOTIFICATION

Research Publication Award

The Institution of Eminence (IoE) proudly announces the Research Publication Award to encourage publications in the top-ranked international journals. The IoE invites applications from eligible faculty members and bonafide students of the University for the Research Publication Award. This award aims to encourage university researchers to publish their quality research work in top-rated high-impact international journals and contribute to enhancing the quality of their scientific research.

- The Research Publication Award shall be in the form of either a research grant or a cash incentive (in lieu of Research Award/Grant @50%) that will be offered to the author/s who have published their research work in the top-rated high-impact journals during the financial year 2023-24.
- The Research Publication Award shall only apply to the authors from the University of Delhi.
- The award amount shall be distributed among the authors from the University of Delhi as per the following guidelines:
 - (a) The 70% of the award amount shall be equally distributed to the first and the corresponding author(s) while the remaining 30% shall be distributed to the rest of the authors from the University of Delhi.
 - (b) In case first and corresponding author is identical while more than two authors have contributed, only half of the 70% of the award amount shall be considered for the author who is both first and corresponding while the remaining 30% shall be distributed equally to the rest of the authors from the University of Delhi.
 - (c) The single/sole author is entitled for the full research award.
 - (d) In case of only two authors in a paper, where both are from the University of Delhi, the full research award shall be distributed equally.
 - (e) In case of only two authors where either of the author is from the University of Delhi, only half of the 70% of the award amount shall be considered.
